Product Safety Recall

IKEA recalls a limited number of PAX AURLAND mirror door

Article number 601-629-14 wardrobe door/hinge 50 × 229cm mirror glass. PAX AURLAND mirror door can be combined with PAX wardrobe frame in various combinations.

Defect: Mirror can detach unexpectedly from the door. The mirror is glued to the wardrobe door and secured in place with metal fastening strips at top and bottom

Hazard: IKEA has received reports that the large mirror can detach and fall, creating sharp shards when it breaks. The mirror is heavy and combined with the risk of breaking it poses a hazard to users.

What to do? IKEA asks all customers who have a PAX AURLAND mirror door to immediately contact IKEA Customer Service for instruction on how to receive a replacement door free of charge.

The safety of our products is always the highest priority at IKEA. IKEA apologies for any inconvenience this may cause.
