

Australians' concern over the impact of the budget

Overall how concerned are you about how the upcoming Federal Budget may affect you?

Base: All people n=1,049

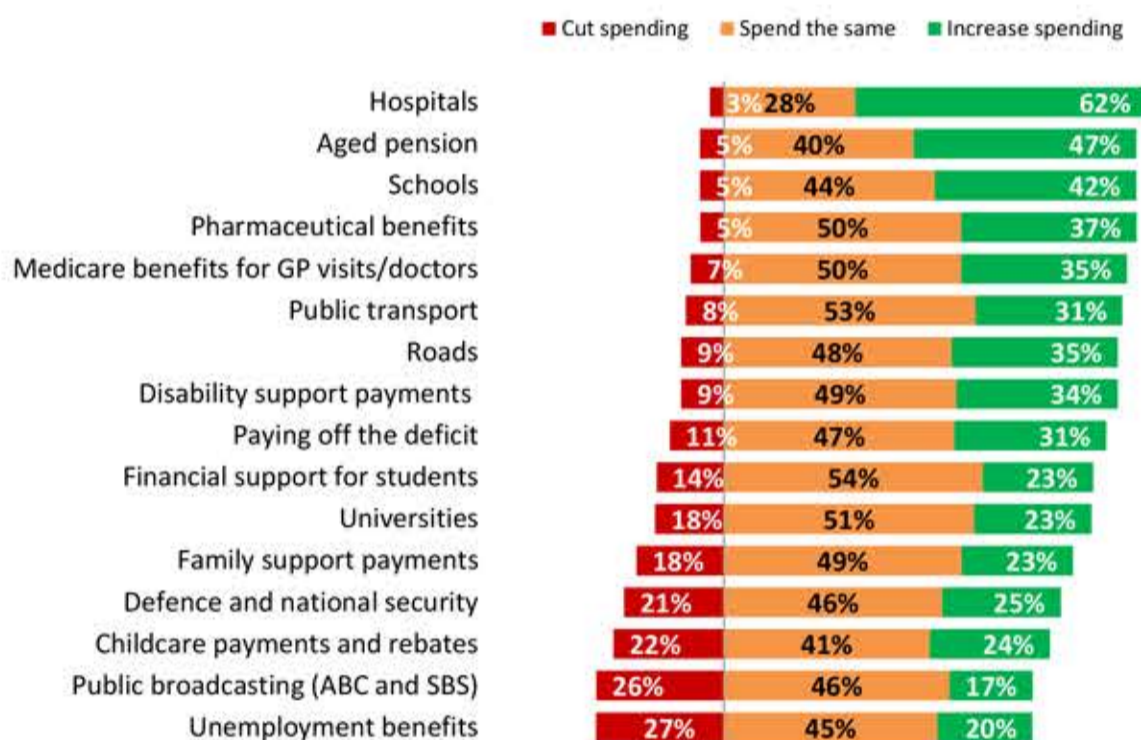

How are Australians feeling about the deficit?

FB2. Which of the following best describes would your attitude to Australia's deficit?

Base: All people n=1,049

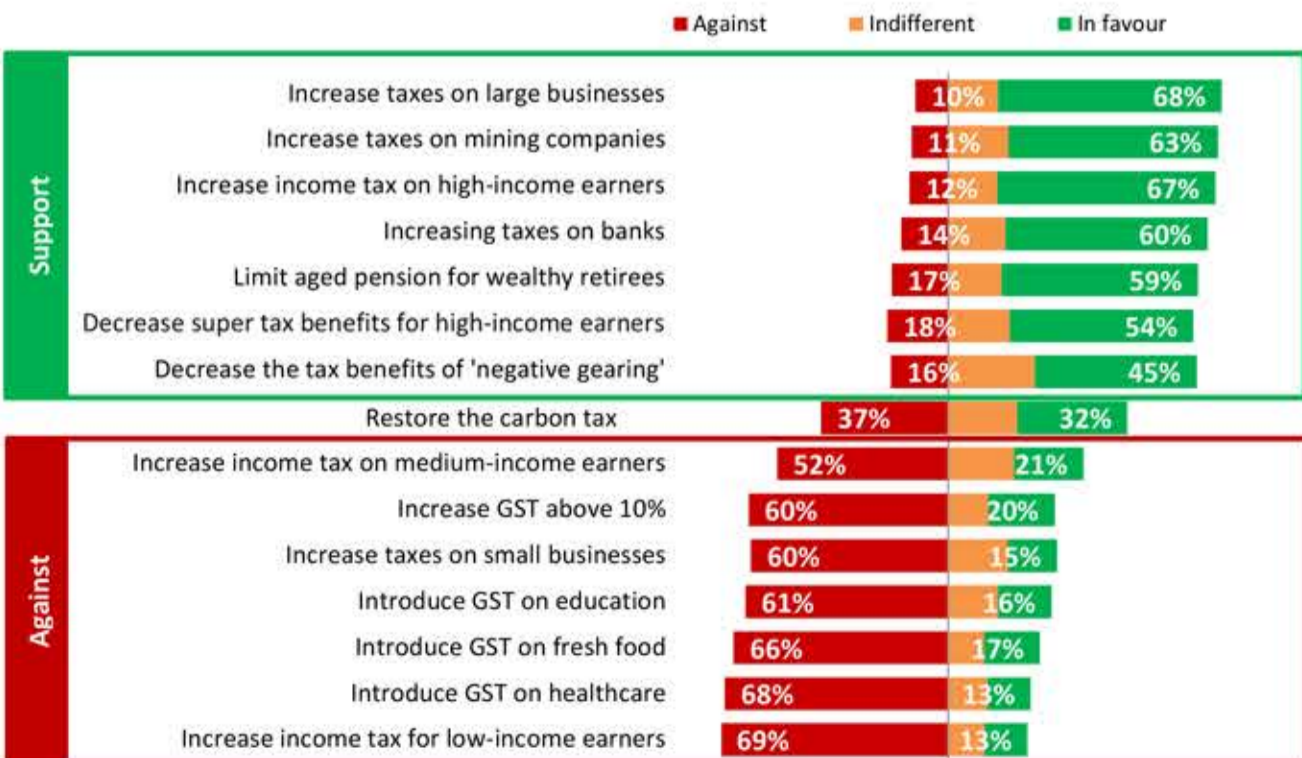

Where should the government spend and cut back?

In the Federal Budget, would you like to see more, less or the same amount of government spending in the following areas? Base: All people n=1,049

NB: Does not add to 100%, Don't know/Not applicable not shown

Support for alternative revenue raising avenues

Below are some options for how the government can raise money. To what extent do you support the following measures to raise revenue in the Federal Budget? Base: All people n=1,049

NB: Does not add to 100%, Don't know/Not applicable not shown

About the report

The survey was designed and analysed by CHOICE.

Fieldwork was administered by GMI Lightspeed Research Australia who is member of AMSRS and abides strictly to codes of conduct for market research and panel management in Australia.

Total sample is n=1,049 Australians aged 18-75 years of age. Final data is weighted to ensure it is representative of the Australian population ABS Census 2011.

Fieldwork was conducted between 17-24 March, 2015.