Reporting questionnaire

Gender equality indicator 1: Gender composition of workforce

This indicator seeks information about the gender composition of relevant employers in a standardised format, to enable the aggregation of data across and within industries. The aggregated data in your workplace profile assists relevant employers in understanding the characteristics of their workforce, including in relation to occupational segregation, the position of women and men in management within their industry or sector, and patterns of potentially insecure employment.

NB. IMPORTANT:

- References to the Act mean the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012.
- A formal 'policy' and/or 'formal strategy' in this questionnaire refers to formal policies and/or strategies that are either standalone or contained within another formal policy/formal strategy.
- Data provided in this reporting questionnaire covers the TOTAL reporting period from 1 April 2017 to 31 March 2018. (This differs from the workplace profile data which is taken at a point-in-time during the reporting period).
- Answers need to reflect ALL organisations covered in this report.
- If you select "NO, Insufficient resources/expertise" to any option, this may cover human or financial resources.

1.13 If your organisation would like to provide additional information relating to gender equality indicator 1, please do so below.

CHOICE 3 year Strategy – Implement a workforce Diversity & Inclusion action plan. Components of this initiative are:

Improve organisational understanding of Diversity and Inclusion with the aim of strengthening a respectful and inclusive work culture

- Diversity and inclusion education for managers capturing our core diversity areas and inclusive leadership
- Mental health awareness for managers
- Aboriginal Cultural Awareness training for managers and key staff on a case by case basis
- Further management development as identified from priority area 2 (e.g. recruitment and selection processes, unconscious bias, barriers in selection for people from diverse backgrounds, implementation of reasonable adjustments)
- All staff participation in selected training and/or awareness sessions
- Development of a Diversity and Inclusion organisational policy.
- Development of reasonable adjustments process and policy
- Investigate the need for a formalised Domestic Violence policy (see priority 3).

- Review and refresh existing policies to capture Diversity and Inclusion elements (especially Gender).
 - Creation of a dedicated Diversity and Inclusion page on Intranet
 - Promotion of internal diversity initiatives more widely and encouraging wider participation in diversity initiatives.
 - Diversity calendar to promote and/or celebrate a variety of workplace and community cultural events.
 - Work collaboratively with other organisations to celebrate such events e.g. Harmony Day, NAIDOC Week, International Women's Day.
 - Continue to recognise, through our Living the Values (LTV) framework, those staff that demonstrate support for diversity and inclusion
 - Accountability for leaders through Small improvements goals for supporting and creating opportunities for staff with diverse backgrounds
- Improve CHOICE's ability to attract, recruit and retain staff of diverse backgrounds, representative of Australian consumers. Initially, CHOICE will prioritise the following key diversity areas:
- a. Gender
 - b. Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander
 - c. Abilities/Disability
 - d. Caring responsibilities/flexibility
- Attraction
Increase our communication and engagement with potential staff and staff by:
- Reviewing our internal technology and premises to ensure they are accessible to a diverse range of people
 - Reviewing our public contact points to ensure they are inclusive and accessible e.g. social media, ensuring our website adheres to Web Content Accessibility Guidelines.
 - Using a variety of communication mediums and platforms to engage with key external diversity groups
- Recruitment
Review our recruitment, selection and sourcing policies and processes. This may include investigating:
- Our recruitment policy
 - Where, what and how we advertise/source
 - Interview panel formation and process
 - Candidate mix
 - Other organisations that we partner with
 - Internships and work experience for key diversity areas outlined in this action plan
 - Our offer process to ensure our remuneration has gender equality
- Review our current on-boarding process and look for opportunities to integrate our diversity and inclusion priorities e.g. induction
- Retention
Six monthly workforce planning to review our workforce composition and agree with the Leadership Team, measures to address any imbalances within key diversity focus areas
- Review our policies and processes in key diversity areas (also detailed in priority area 1), examples may include:
- approach to flexibility
 - parental leave policy to ensure our practices match best practice and we are encouraging return to work.
- Continue to evolve our return practices e.g. lactation space and resources
- reasonable adjustments for those staff that identify as having a disability
- During our regular organisational remuneration review process, consider any adjustments in conjunction with our WGEA remuneration data.
- Proactive communication around leave to better support our key diversity focus areas
- Ensure we apply a diverse and inclusive lens to our work

Gender equality indicator 2: Gender composition of governing bodies

Gender composition of governing bodies is an indicator of gender equality at the highest level of organisational leadership and decision-making. This gender equality indicator seeks information on the representation of women and men on governing bodies. The term "governing body" in relation to a relevant employer is broad and depends on the nature of your organisation. It can mean the board of directors, trustees, committee of management, council or other governing authority of the employer.

2. The organisation(s) you are reporting on will have a governing body. In the Act, governing body is defined as "the board of directors, trustees, committee of management, council or other governing authority of the employer". This question relates to the highest governing body for your Australian entity, even if it is located overseas.

2.1 Please answer the following questions relating to each governing body covered in this report.

Note: If this report covers more than one organisation, the questions below will be repeated for each organisation before proceeding to question 2.2.

If your organisation's governing body is the same as your parent entity's, you will need to add your organisation's name BUT the numerical details of your parent entity's governing body.

2.1a.1 Organisation name?

CHOICE Australian Consumers Association

2.1b.1 How many Chairs on this governing body?

	Female	Male

2.1c.1 How many other members are on this governing body (excluding the Chair/s)?

	Female	Male
Number	5	3

2.1d.1 Has a target been set to increase the representation of women on this governing body?

- ☒ Yes
☐ No (you may specify why a target has not been set)
☐ Governing body/board has gender balance (e.g. 40% women/40% men/20% either)
☐ Currently under development, please enter date this is due to be completed
☐ Insufficient resources/expertise
☐ Do not have control over governing body/board appointments (provide details why):
☐ Not a priority
☐ Other (provide details):

2.1e.1 What is the percentage (%) target?

50

2.1f.1 What year is the target to be reached?

2018

2.1g.1 Are you reporting on any other organisations in this report?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

2.2 Do you have a formal selection policy and/or formal selection strategy for governing body members for ALL organisations covered in this report?

- ☒ Yes (select all applicable answers)
☒ Policy
☐ Strategy
☐ No (you may specify why no formal selection policy or formal selection strategy is in place)
☐ In place for some governing bodies
☐ Currently under development, please enter date this is due to be completed
☐ Insufficient resources/expertise
☐ Do not have control over governing body appointments (provide details why)
☐ Not a priority
☐ Other (provide details):

2.3 Does your organisation operate as a partnership structure (i.e. select NO if your organisation is an "incorporated" entity - Pty Ltd, Ltd or Inc; or an "unincorporated" entity)?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

2.5 If your organisation would like to provide additional information relating to gender equality indicator 2, please do so below.

Gender equality indicator 3: Equal remuneration between women and men

Equal remuneration between women and men is a key component of improving women's economic security and progressing gender equality.

3. Do you have a formal policy and/or formal strategy on remuneration generally?

- ☒ Yes (select all applicable answers)
☒ Policy
☐ Strategy
☐ No (you may specify why no formal policy or formal strategy is in place)
☐ Currently under development, please enter date this is due to be completed
☐ Insufficient resources/expertise

☐ Currently under development, please enter date this is due to be completed
☐ Insufficient resources/expertise
☐ Salaries set by awards/industrial or workplace agreements
☐ Non-award employees are paid market rate
☐ Unable to address cause/s of gaps (provide details why):
☐ Not a priority
☐ Other (provide details):

4.2 If your organisation would like to provide additional information relating to gender equality indicator 3, please do so below:

Gender equality indicator 4: Flexible working and support for employees with family and caring responsibilities

This indicator will enable the collection and use of information from relevant employers about the availability and utility of employment terms, conditions and practices relating to flexible working arrangements for employees and to working arrangements supporting employees with family or caring responsibilities. One aim of this indicator is to improve the capacity of women and men to combine paid work and family or caring responsibilities through such arrangements. The achievement of this goal is fundamental to gender equality and to maximising Australia's skilled workforce.

5. A "PRIMARY CARER" is the member of a couple or a single carer, REGARDLESS OF GENDER, identified as having greater responsibility for the day-to-day care of a child.

Do you provide EMPLOYER FUNDED paid parental leave for PRIMARY CARERS that is available for women AND men, in addition to any government funded parental leave scheme for primary carers?

- ☒ Yes. (Please indicate how employer funded paid parental leave is provided to the primary carer):
- ☐ By paying the gap between the employee's salary and the government's paid parental leave scheme
