

PLEASE NOTE:

- Made in Australia means the product must be substantially “transformed” in Australia - it must have undergone a fundamental change in form, appearance or nature, such that the product existing after the change is new and different from the product beforehand - with at least 50% of production costs incurred here.
- Made in Australia from imported and local ingredients means the product was processed in Australia (see "Made in Australia" above) - although the majority of the ingredients are imported.
- Made in Australia from local and imported ingredients means the product was processed in Australia (see "Made in Australia" above) and there is more locally sourced ingredients than imported ones.
